

Labor Studies

City College for Spring, 2005

Labor Law

(Labor Studies 102)

Practical legal background for labor relations, this course focuses on real problems brought to the class by the students and how the law can help solve those problems

Monday Evenings, 6:00-9:20

At the American Federation of Teachers
3737 Camino del Rio South, San Diego 92108

Instructor: Mike Baranic, Labor Attorney

And

U.S. Working Class and Cinema

(English 209, Film as Literature)

From Salt of the Earth to Roger and Me, this special section of English 209 focuses on films that feature the lives and struggles of workers.

Thursday Evenings, 6:55-10:00pm, Room B-203 at City College

Instructor: Héctor Martínez, City College Professor, AFT 1931

Classes Start January 31, 2005; Pre-enroll, or come to class on the first night.
These Labor Studies Courses are 3 units; Registration is $26 per unit. (over)

ALSO, New to Labor Studies!

Watch for short course offerings in April and May, 2005 in Occupational Safety and Health
and

Shop Steward Training, 1 and 2

For more information, contact Roberta Alexander (619) 388-3089;
ralexand@sdccd.net

City College
1313 12th Avenue/Park Blvd
San Diego, CA 92101
(619) 388-3400
www.sdccity.edu

Parking Hotline: (619) 388-PARK (7275)

New Students

1. File an application
 - a. ON-LINE - go to sdccd.net, click on Application, or
 - b. Obtain, complete and submit the application for Admission at the Admissions Office, Rm. A-112 (Open Monday-Thursday, 7am-7pm; metered parking available on Russ St, near the Admissions Office)
2. When you submit your application, you will receive an appointment to register using ClassTalk: (619) 624-2100, or Reg-e: <http://studentweb.sdccd.net>. See "Registration Information" for details.
3. If you want to get an AA degree or to transfer to a four-year college, be sure to go to your assessment/orientation appointment which will be provided when you turn in your application.

Continuing Students,

Register for your classes on

1. Class Talk (619) 624-2100 [for Class Talk Assistance, call 388-3200], or
2. Reg-e: <http://studentweb.sdccd.net>

For more information on the Labor Studies Program, e-mail
Dr. Roberta Alexander at ralexand@sdccd.net, or call (619)388-3089