

Check out the Labor Studies Program at City College this Spring!

Labor Studies 122 A & B: Shop Steward I & II

Monday evenings 6:55-7:55 and 8:05-9:05 in L113

CRNs: LABR 122 A: 00535; LABR 122B: 00541

Instructor: Sara Gurling

California Nurse's Association

Interested in an Introduction to Labor type of class? These linked courses are designed for union members and employees who want to learn basic workplace rights and problem-solving skills. They will focus on issues such as how unions work, workplace concerns including grievances and collective bargaining, political issues, communication and interpersonal skills, and much much more! Taught by a seasoned organizer, these two courses will introduce you to the empowering world of labor!

Labor Studies 090: Organizing

Tuesday evenings 6:55-10:00 in L106

CRN: 86414

Instructor: Sara Gurling

California Nurse's Association

So you want to be an Organizer? This course is a practical study of organizing skills with emphasis placed on labor and community activism and leadership, organizing techniques and building a culture and capacity for labor and community organizing through analyses of successful campaigns. This course is designed for labor studies majors, union members and all members of the community interested in organizing.

Spring classes begin on January 27th, 2014. To register
<http://schedule.sdccd.edu/> or call (619) 388-3400.

Contact: Kelly Mayhew, Labor Studies Coordinator, at kellysm99@earthlink.net for more information

