The Community College Initiative... a chance for every Californian to go to college.

- Guarantees independence from politics
- Guarantees minimum funding for growth
- Guarantees $15 per unit fees that only rise with cost of living

463,000 Latino students. 30% of all Latinos in the United States attending college are enrolled in a California Community College.

118,000 African American students. There are 90,000 more African American students in Community Colleges than in the CSU and UC systems combined.

247,000 Asian and Pacific Islander students. A quarter of a million Californians from Asian and Pacific Islander backgrounds are enrolled in the Community Colleges.

14,000 Native American students. That's nearly triple the number of Native Americans attending CSU and UC combined.
