

Spring Semester 2007

Five -Week Session • January

California Labor Law

Learn the basics of the California Labor Code and Wage Orders and the Industrial Welfare Commission and how to apply them to workplace experiences.

(Labor Studies 124, 3 units, CRN 70492)

Instructor: Michael Baranic, Labor Attorney

Five Thursdays: January 4-February 1

5:30-8:40 pm Room B-4

Educational Cultural Complex (ECC)

4343 Ocean View Blvd.

Three -Week Session • March

Occupational Safety and Health

A hands-on study of the health and safety issues of the work place. Students will identify and analyze the causes of health and safety problems in the workplace and learn problem-solving skills as well as the elements of a comprehensive and effective injury and illness prevention program.

(Labor Studies 123A, 1.5 units, CRN 19030)

Instructor: Deogracia Cornelio,

UCLA, LOSH Program

Three Saturdays: March 3, March 10, March 17

8:30 am-5:30 pm, Room C-1

Educational Cultural Complex (ECC)

4343 Ocean View Blvd.

Full -Semester Session • February – May

Labor Law

Practical legal background for labor relations. This course focuses on real problems brought to class by students and how the law can help solve those problems

(Labor Studies 102, 3 unit, CRN 64137)

Instructor: Jason Aldrich, Labor Attorney

Tuesdays: Feb. 6-May 29

5:45-8:50 pm Room 1204

Hoover High School

4474 El Cajon Blvd.

Introduction to Film about Working People, Their Struggles and Their Unions

Read, enjoy, and discuss films about workers, our history, our lives, our struggles, and our unions!

(English 209, Literary Approaches to Film, 3 units, CRN 48140)

Instructor: Hector Martínez, Professor of English, San Diego City College

Thursdays: Feb. 8-May 31

7:00-10:00 pm, Room B-203

San Diego City College

1313 Park Blvd.

SAN DIEGO COLLEGE

www.sdcc.edu

For more information contact: Roberta Alexander, 619.388.3089
ralexand@sdccd.edu

For application instructions, see other side.

Spring 2007

San Diego City College Labor Studies
1313 Park Blvd., San Diego, CA 92101
(619) 388-3400
www.sdcity.edu

Parking Hotline: (619) 388-PARK (7275)

HOW TO APPLY

New Students

1. File an application
 - a. ONLINE – go to www.sdccd.edu, click on Application and finish the process online, or
 - b. Obtain, complete and submit the Application for Admission
Admissions Office, Rm. A-112
Monday-Thursday, 7am-7pm
Metered parking available on Russ Blvd., near the Admissions Office
2. After submitting your application, you will receive an appointment to register using ClassTalk: (619) 624-2100, or Reg-e: <http://studentweb.sdccd.net>. See "Registration Information" for details.
3. For information on an AA degree or transferring to a four-year college, attend your assessment/orientation appointment (scheduled at time of application).

Continuing Students

Register for your classes on

1. ClassTalk (619) 624-2100 (for ClassTalk assistance, call 388-3200)
or
2. Reg-e: <http://studentweb.sdccd.net>