

Check out the Labor Studies Program at City College this Spring 2016!

Labor Studies 104: Collective Bargaining

Thursday evenings 6:55-10:00PM in AH 509

CRN: 12065

Instructor: Jennie Carbuccia, General Counsel at Sweetwater Union High School District

Interested in finding out how collective bargaining for contracts works? This course is designed for union members and employees who want to learn not only about what happens during the collective bargaining process but also how to negotiate. Taught by a seasoned organizer and labor lawyer who has sat on both sides of the table, this course will introduce you to the dynamic process of bargaining!

Labor Studies 090: Organizing

Tuesday evenings 6:55-10:00 in AH 413

CRN: 73360

Instructor: Mat Kostrinsky, Regional Coordinator of the United Domestic Workers

So you want to be an Organizer? This course is a practical study of organizing skills with emphasis placed on labor and community activism and leadership, organizing techniques and building a culture and capacity for labor and community organizing through analyses of successful campaigns, labor and social justice movement history, geopolitical realities, and power. This course is designed for labor and community organizers, labor studies majors, union members, and anyone in the community interested in organizing.

To sign up to take classes at City College go to: <https://applyonline.communitycollege.net/studentappview.cfm>. Already signed up? Go to: <https://studentweb.sdccd.edu/reg-e/index.cfm> to register for classes!

Spring classes begin on January 25th, 2016

Contact: Kelly Mayhew, Labor Studies Coordinator, at kmayhew@sdccd.edu for more information