

BLACK history MONTH

SAN DIEGO CITY COLLEGE BLACK HISTORY MONTH EVENTS

Virtual Black History Month Resources Display

February 1-28 | All day

library.sdcity.edu/resourcelists

To give students and faculty a taste of what is available via the library regarding black history, and to highlight various experiences of being black. Sponsored by The Library

Black Film Fridays Series Film Screening

Q&A with filmmaker Jordan Thierry
THE BLACK FATHERHOOD PROJECT

February 5 | 5:00 - 8:00pm

Zoom: SDSU.zoom.us/j/83968158717

In The Black Fatherhood Project, filmmaker Jordan Thierry leads viewers through an honest and essential exploration of fatherhood in Black America, providing historical context and conversation for an issue at the core of the Black experience today. The information is timely, relevant, and is critical for addressing fatherhood in the African-American community. Sponsored by UMOJA, HUBU, City Scholars, Diversity Committee & SDSU (Africana Studies)

Black History Month Family Storytime

February 16 | 3:00 - 4:00pm

Zoom: 934 4362 6176, Password: 964992

Read aloud for the children of students and staff. Sponsored by EOPS

Intersectional Experiences — Student Panel

February 17 | 1:30 - 2:30pm

Zoom: 994 6591 4145

Uplifting Voices of Black Students on Lived Experience of the Intersectionality of Race & Disability in Higher Education. Sponsored by DSPS

SDSU Black Resource Center Presentation and Student Panel

February 18 | 11:00am - 12:00pm

Zoom: 926 5640 0388, Password: 849009

To inform the campus of the mission, services and networking opportunities provided by the SDSU Black Resource Center. Student interns will share their educational journeys. Sponsored by EOPS

Black Film Fridays Series Film Screening

FENCES by August Wilson

February 19 | 5:00 - 8:00pm

Zoom: SDSU.zoom.us/j/83968158717

Fences; Troy Maxson (Denzel Washington) makes his living as a sanitation worker in 1950s Pittsburgh. Maxson once dreamed of becoming a professional baseball player but was deemed too old when the major leagues began admitting black athletes. Bitter over his missed opportunity, Troy creates further tension in his family when he squashes his son's (Jovan Adepo) chance to meet a college football recruiter. Sponsored by UMOJA, HUBU, City Scholars, Diversity Committee & SDSU (Africana Studies)

Langston Hughes Project:

Ask Your Mama — 12 Moods for Jazz

February 20 | 5:30 - 7:30pm

Free to attendees through registration access link -TBA
(Being hosted by Mesa College)

A Virtual Presentation with Dr. Ron McCurdy, Professor of Music USC Thornton School of Music, including performance and discussion; multi-media jazz project Sponsored by Diversity Committee District Collaboration: College Diversity Advisory Council (CDAC) which includes the Diversity Committees of City, Continuing Ed, Mesa, Miramar, and District Office in partnership with the District EEO, The Association of Black Psychologists San Diego Chapter

Breaking Down Barriers —

Anti-racism/Biases Presentation (Part 1)

February 22 | 1:00 - 3:00pm

Zoom: buff.ly/2Ypzu7W

To help establish a foundation towards understanding and implementing anti-racism/anti-oppression practices, self-reflection, and personal critique as related to mental health. Sponsored by Student Health Center

Voices of Blackness: The Cultural Arts Pioneers

Produced and presented by Cultural Noire Performing Arts Company

February 23 | 5:00pm

Zoom: 926 5640 0388, Password: 44lk59

"Voices of Blackness" is a Cultural Arts series conceived and developed by CNPAC's Founder, Gina M. Jackson that features various cultural leaders and movements. Sponsored by English Department

Breaking Down Barriers —

Anti-racism/Biases Presentation (Part 2)

February 23 | 1:00 - 3:00pm

Zoom: buff.ly/36nJV01

To educate the campus on the Black community's history, cultural norms and practices, mental health data, and other sensitivities to be mindful of. Sponsored by Student Health Center

Black Excellence Across the Industries

February 24 | 9:30 - 11:30am

Zoom: cccconfer.zoom.us/j/97238887887

Join us for an industry panel exploring San Diego's Top 10 Hiring Sectors. We look forward to seeing and learning from Black leaders from various organizations. Sponsored by Transfer and Career Center

Active Mic: Mental Health Through Music presentation

February 24 | 11:30am - 12:30pm

Registration Link: buff.ly/3t5hBcu

In his high energy "Active Mic: Mental Health Through Music" presentation, Kai tells the story of his battle with panic attacks and anxiety through interactive dialogue and hip-hop music. From the beginning, the audience is engrossed in the origins of his anxiety, gradually taking the journey into his emotions, through his disorder, and into his recovery. Be prepared for good music, meaningful messages, and an overall good time. Sponsored by Student Health Center

Californians for Safety and Justice

February 25 | 1:00 - 2:30pm

Zoom: 921 9903 0734, Password: 870205

Presentation by Terrance Stewart on how to support formerly incarcerated students and families. Sponsored by EOPS

Black Film Fridays Series Film Screening

KING IN THE WILDERNESS

February 25 | 5:00 - 8:00pm

Zoom: SDSU.zoom.us/j/83968158717

King in the Wilderness chronicles the final chapters of Dr. Martin Luther King Jr.'s life, revealing a conflicted leader who faced an onslaught of criticism from both sides of the political spectrum. While the Black Power movement saw his nonviolence as weakness, and President Lyndon B. Johnson saw his anti-Vietnam War speeches as irresponsible, Dr. King's unyielding belief in peaceful protest became a testing point for a nation on the brink of chaos.

Sponsored by UMOJA, HUBU, City Scholars, Diversity Committee & SDSU (Africana Studies)

SAN DIEGO CITY COLLEGE
EQUITY